Awaken Your Senses and Explore the Marketplace at www.amorosabella.com

Amorosa Bella, an online community and marketplace for people to uncover the rich world of the senses, staged an experiential launch party for press and influencers on Monday, November 9 at the Campbell Apartment, New York. Hosted by Dr. Charlyn Belluzzo, author of Authentic Sensual Living, and a founder of Amorosa Bella, the event featured a dazzling array of sensual delights. Guests at the event were treated to Amorosa Bella's exclusive line of wines, photography, natural fragrances, candles, and lingerie. They also received a copy of Authentic Sensual Living, a life plan for a rich more authentic life guided by the senses.

Sensory expert Belluzzo revealed her inspiration for Amorosa Bella: "Amorosa Bella means "beautiful lover" and evokes our deep commitment toward engaging in a love affair with life," stated Belluzzo. "The word "sensual" literally means "of the senses" - the unseen energy that permeates all things. Amorosa Bella delivers resources for releasing all of your senses: sight, sound, smell, touch, taste and intuition."
